The funeral of Mrs. William Hazelton was held at the home of her niece, Mrs. John Bisbee, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The officiating clergyman was Rev. William A. Remele, pastor of the Congregational church, of which Mrs. Hazelton was formerly a member. Music was furnished by Principal Williams of the high school, who sang "Face to Face" (Bartlett) and "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" (Ambrose), accompanied by Miss Marion Niell. The deceased died of cancer on Thursday, June 10, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. W. Gorham of North Hanson, Mass., where she had resided the last few years.

Fanny C. Hazelton was the daughter of Andrew B. C. and Jerusha J. (Hazelton) Davis and was born in Duxbury, Aug. 12, 1845. TALK OF THE TOWN

Full line of wash skirts at Abbott's. Cap Pyrex for spraying trees and potatoes. For sale at Kempton Mills. Flag day was accorded little semblance of an observance in Barre to-day, although in a few notable instances people took pains to display the colors.

Forrest Carroll of North Main street left yesterday morning for Old Orchard, Me., where he will be employed at a hotel there during the summer months. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. York, who recently came to Montpelier from their home in St. Albans, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Miles of South Main street.

A special meeting of the ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church will be held this evening at 7:30. It is important that every member attend this meeting.

Congressman Frank L. Greene of St. Albans was a visitor in the city Saturday afternoon while on his way to Calais, where he was the speaker at a gathering of grangers.

Urie Lebourveau, who was recently graduated from Worcester, Mass., Polytechnic institute, has arrived in the city and will pass the summer at his home on East street.

Manager George Maniatty of the United Fruit Store has added an auto truck to his delivery service, having purchased a 1915 model truck of standard manufacture. The truck was put in commission Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. E. A. Williams and nephew, Leslie, of South Main street left yesterday for a few days' visit in Boston, where they will be met by Miss Ella Williams, formerly of this city. Later they will go to Monkton, N. B., to spend the summer months.

Committees in charge of the social entertainment at the Baptist church are planning to hold their next social on Tuesday night. An extensive program is being arranged and games and a social good time will be given. The entertainment and social will follow immediately after a business meeting, which will close promptly at 8 o'clock.

The Barre Citizens' band will hold its weekly rehearsal Tuesday evening instead of to-night. Although no formal agreement between the band and the aldermanic band committee relative to a contract for weekly open air concerts has been reached, it is expected that the musicians will appear in the park Wednesday night while negotiations are pending.

A farewell party to Glenn Merrill and Charles Ford was given Saturday evening at the home of Mr. Merrill on the Montpelier road. A large party of friends of the two young men gathered to give them a royal send-off. Games were played and part of the time was given up to cards in the form of whist. Refreshments in the form of ice cream, cake, sandwiches and olives were served to the company. The two young men left yesterday for Boston, where they are employed in the Mead-Morrison machinery manufacturing plant.

Cement workers and other laborers in the employ of the street department began work to-day in earnest on the new cement sidewalk that is to be erected in front of the Hotel Barre on Washington street. The cement mixer ordered by the aldermanic street committee a few weeks ago arrived in the city from Milwaukee Saturday and was installed on the hotel job to-day. It is propelled by a gasoline engine and will fill a long felt want in the department. Interior work at the new hotel is going on apace and the indications are that the hope of the incorporators to have the place open for business before July 1 will be realized.

Angus A. Smith of Perry street, who has been making an extended stay in Montreal, arrived in the city last evening for a visit of several weeks. Dr. Smith describes the dominion metropolis as an armed camp and says that the principal occupation seems to be that of recruiting soldiers for the next Canadian overseas expedition. Canadian people are a unit in holding up the hands of the British government in its war against the Teutonic allies, according to Mr. Smith, and sentiment in British North America is for a war of unintermittent length if a shorter struggle cannot remove the German military menace. Canadians look with approval on President Wilson's stand in the Lusitania affair, Mr. Smith goes on to say.

Rumors of a shooting in the north end yesterday had in them the element of truth to the extent that an officer who arrested a man for intoxication returned to the scene of the arrest soon afterward and found a revolver, harmlessly shot of cartridges, which someone had thrown into the river where the water is shallow. Pasquale Col, who was taken in custody by Officer John S. Murley, pleaded guilty to a first offense before Magistrate H. W. Scott this morning and paid a $5 fine and costs of $5. Joseph Pendleton, an itinerant from Nashua, N. H., who skuffed his pedals on the threshold of this city for the first time Saturday, came before the court to-day and pleaded guilty to a first offense, accepting the alternative sentence of 10 days in the county jail. He was arrested by Officer Murley. James Pury called around this forenoon and made arrangements to pay a $15 fine and costs of $5.95, which were assessed against him for an offense alleged to have been committed sometime ago.

Larger users of postage stamps as well as the occasional or sporadic correspondent who gives down his two cents and attaches it to a letter will be interested in an explanation of the "fidelity two-cent postage stamp" which A. M. Dockery, third assistant postmaster general, makes in reply to criticism from a metropolitan newspaper. For some time, as any number of people will testify, government stamps when they are purchased in sheets are prone to tear when separated. This irritating circumstance is not due to any deterioration in the quality of paper used, but to the manufacture of stamps, but rather to an effort on the part of the bureau of engraving and printing to widen the spacing between perforations for the purpose of eliminating the heavy loss caused by the splitting of a part of the stamps in course of production and for the further purpose of obviating the annoyance to the public and the difficulties experienced by postoffice employees from postmaster's searching. Criticism of the new perforation have been received by the department and a new set of perforating wheels designed to punch the holes closer together, has been obtained. Mr. Dockery adds that nothing will be left undone to remove the cause of the complaint.

KILLED IN STATEROOM.

George H. Kendrick of Boston Victim as Vessels Crash.

New York, June 14.—In a collision between the passenger steamer Bunker between the passenger steamer Bunker Hill and C. K. G. Billings' steam yacht Vanadis in a dense fog off Hunt's Point on Long Island sound last night one man, George H. Kendrick of Boston, was killed and three persons were seriously injured. Both vessels were badly damaged and accompanied by tugs for New York where the Bunker Hill arrived shortly before midnight.

Mr. Kendrick was killed in his state room over the dining room in the crash between the yacht and the steamship which left here early last night for Boston with about 250 passengers on board. The bow of the Vanadis penetrated the side of the steamer making a hole three feet above the water line about the beam on the port side. Many of the passengers were in the dining room when the crash occurred and the noise of the yacht jammed into the room. Part of the ceiling crashed to the floor, furnishings were wrecked and excitement prevailed in the midst of which two passengers jumped overboard. Both were afterward reported to have been safely picked up. After the first crash the Vanadis, according to passengers, again plunged forward, this time leaving her bow stuck fast in the hull of the Bunker Hill.

Those injured in the crash were: Mrs. Wightman, Boston, crushed right foot. Mrs. Martha Wough, Philadelphia, fractured arm. John C. Bell, New York, scalp wounds. Besides the passengers who jumped overboard one of the employees on the boat was thrown overboard into the sea by the impact of the collision and was picked up by the Vanadis.

DIDN'T TALK OF PEACE

Declared Col. House On Returning to the United States.

New York, June 14.—Admitting that he had talked with leading government officials of Germany, France and England, but denying that his trip to Europe was in any way connected with a possible mission looking toward peace, or that he was the personal emissary of President Wilson, Col. Edward M. House arrived yesterday from Liverpool, a passenger on the American line steamship St. Paul.

"I did not talk peace, and that was not my mission abroad," Colonel House declared. "That report was the biggest piece of nonsense that I have heard." He also said that he was not called home by President Wilson, but that since leaving New York on January 30 of this year he had met and talked with leading officials of the governments mentioned but added that his visit was a personal one, as a private citizen and that it had no political significance.

He said that he goes to Europe almost every year and this trip had been no exception as to intent or purpose. Asked if he had communicated with President Wilson during his absence on any matter of importance that had come to his notice, he said this would be the duty of any American citizen, and that President Wilson was his personal friend.

Colonel House left the St. Paul before the ship reached port. Collector Dudley Field Malone, on the coast guard cutter Manhattan, met the ship off Sandy Hook, Colonel House going aboard the cutter. Mrs. House, who was with him while abroad, remained on the steamship, the cutter with Mr. House aboard, landing at a private dock where he at once took train for Roslyn, Long Island, going to the home of his son-in-law, Ambrose. There he received newspaper men and parried a volley of questions intended to bring out his views on the war and what he had seen and done in Europe.

GAVE A "BACKWARD" RECEPTION.

Girls of S. H. S. 1915 Entertained the Boys Pleasantly.

At the Spaulding high school Saturday evening one of the most successful and unique parties of the season was given by the girl graduates of the 1915 class to the boys and also to all the past members of that class. The decorations were most effective; the halls and reception room presenting a most pleasing picture. The color scheme throughout was that of the class colors, green and gold. The S. H. S. banners of blue and red also had prominence. Conspicuous about the halls and rooms were trimmed cosy corners.

The gathering took the form of a "backward social." Each of the 80 young people that gathered there noticed a sign upon entering that read "Walk backward." The price of not heeding this warning was a forfeit.

Shortly after 8 o'clock, when all were assembled, a program was given. The first was a farewell address by Lesell Hunter. Then came the forfeits which gave all a chance for much merriment and laughter. The cracker contest was another laughing time for the girls. They fed the boys crackers and the first one to whistle after eating a cracker was awarded a prize. Perry Oliver was the successful one, getting a whistle soon after beginning. A spelling match headed by Mr. Hubbard and Miss Proctor was a novelty in that the words had to be spelled backward. The side of Mr. Hubbard won out in this contest. Baby pictures were also exhibited and a prize was given to Florence Russell for the prettiest picture. The crowning of Venus came next, followed by the presentation of bogus diplomas tied with green and gold ribbon.

After the serving of ice cream and wafers by four girls in the freshman class, the grand march was begun. Music was furnished from a victrola and part of the crowd gathered in the halls and enjoyed dancing. In behalf of the boys and of the past members of the class, Frank McDonald responded and thanked the girls for their evening's entertainment. A marshmallow contest was won by Lyman Whitcomb, a one time member of the 1915 class at Spaulding. In closing an address of welcome was given by Miss Marjorie Andrews.

The two committees to whom much of the honor for the success of the evening goes, are as follows: Entertainment: Grace Brown, Theresa Bianchi, Bertha Dale, Esther Langley, Nellie Scampini, and Marion Taylor. Refreshment: Vera Bjork, Ruby Head, Lesell Hunter, Mary Tomasi and Gladys Perkins.
